USPA NEWS - FLAME INTERNATIONAL 2025

Mahatma Gandhi Leadership Award.
Celebrating Global Indians and International Achievers.

Lord Mayor of Oxford's Council Chamber, Oxford, United Kingdom
Date: 30th October 2025

Honoured to Receive the Mahatma Gandhi Leadership Award.

The ceremony took place at the historic Lord Mayor of Oxford's Council Chamber on 30th October 2025, during the event "Mahatma Gandhi Leadership Award — Celebrating Global Indians and International Achievers".

The award was graciously presented by His Excellency
Mr. Mark Lygo, Chairman of Oxfordshire County, together with Ms. Lubna Arshad, Cabinet Member for a Safer Oxford and former Lord Mayor of Oxford (2023–24), on behalf of the NRI Welfare Society (UK Chapter). The event united remarkable achievers from around the world, celebrating leadership, peace and cross-cultural understanding inspired by Mahatma Gandhi's legacy.

It is a great honour to receive an award that bears the name of Mahatma Gandhi — a universal symbol of peace, compassion and integrity. For me, this recognition stands for the power of creativity and moral leadership to connect people beyond borders.
It is my second award — I had the honour of receiving the first medal at the House of Parliament in London in 2019, marking the 150th anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi.

Yes, that's true. The Prime Minister kindly sent his message of appreciation, highlighting the importance of cultural and humanitarian ties between India and the United Kingdom. It was a touching moment that reflected the spirit of unity and collaboration.

With deep gratitude, I would like to thank the NRI Welfare Society (UK Chapter) and Dr. Deepak Singh for this honour, as well as Ms. Lubna Arshad and His Excellency Mr. Mark Lygo for presenting the award in such a meaningful and memorable ceremony.

My heartfelt thanks go to everyone who continues to support and believe in the vision of Flame International — celebrating creativity, humanity and leadership.
And above all, my heartfelt gratitude goes to my husband — for his unwavering support, kindness and encouragement. His belief in me makes every success even more meaningful.
To my wonderful team — the best team in the world — thank you for your dedication, creativity and faith. You make every dream shine brighter.

Thank you all for the warm congratulations, kind messages and encouragement.
Your support means the world to me.
