USPA NEWS - The city of Mosul in Iraq was taken over by the terrorist organization Daech after long and hard fights. The President of the Republic, Emmanuel Macron, welcomes the victory of the Iraqi security forces backed by the International Coalition against Daech and congratulates the authorities and the people of the Republic of Iraq.

The President of the Republic, Emmanuel Macron, welcomes the victory of the Iraqi security forces backed by the International Coalition against Daech and congratulates the authorities and the people of the Republic of Iraq.

In the aftermath of the resumption of Mosul, the challenges for Iraq are immense. Military as well as political, humanitarian or economic. Many questions still need to be decided by policy-makers and Iraqi society alike. The correctness of these choices will depend on the future of Iraq as well as the future of the region and the continuation of the fight against the terrorist threat. The President of the French Republic, Emmanuel Macron, hopes that the victory of Mosul will open a new chapter in the history of this country and allow him to find peace, stability and unity. France will stand by its side. Source: Elysee
